

2008 Racine County Fair Fairest Of the Fair Contest

Entries are now open for the 2008 Racine County Fairest of the Fair.

The new Racine County Fairest of the Fair will succeed Becky Isaacson, the reigning fairest. The top contestant selected will be the official public relations person at the Racine County Fair July 23rd to July 27th, and throughout the year. The winner will also represent Racine County at the state competition in January 2009.

A contestant must be 18 years of age and have been a resident of Racine County for at least one (1) year. The only exception: contestants may reside in an adjoining county if the majority of fair and/or school activities are in Racine County. Contestants should also have knowledge of the Racine County Fair.

Scholarships are awarded to the top contestants. The Racine County Agricultural Society, Inc. will present a lifetime membership to the Fairest.
